MEMORANDUM
NUMBER [REDACTED]

8 July 1947

SUBJECT: Temporary Additional Duty Travel Orders for Navy Personnel

EFFECTIVE UNTIL CANCELLED OR SUPERSEDED

1. Whenever it is necessary for Navy personnel to perform temporary additional duty travel the following action shall be taken in connection with the procurement of appropriate official orders.

2. Action by Requesting Office

The requesting office will initiate Form No. 34-5, Request for Domestic Travel, and forward both copies to the Chief, Transportation Division, Service Branch, A & M. In addition to the routine information required on Form No. 34-5 there should also be shown on this form:

- a. Any special instructions as to security of the mission. No request should be classified unless absolutely necessary and the question of correct classification should be taken up with the Naval Administrative Command before classification is affixed.
- b. A statement to the effect that "This Temporary Additional Duty is necessary in the performance of duties for CIE and the CIE will make reimbursement of per diem and actual travel costs in accordance with Naval Travel Instructions."

3. Action by the Naval Administrative Command

Upon receipt of Form No. 34-5 the Naval Administrative Command will issue very broad temporary additional duty orders, affixing appropriate security classification where applicable. (Attached hereto is a sample of such orders which will be altered as required.) Two copies of the orders will be forwarded to the Fiscal Division, Finance Branch, A & M, and the original of the orders will be given to the traveler.

After the travel is completed the Naval Administrative Command will forward copies of the completed orders to the Bureau of Naval Personnel and the cognizant Naval Paymaster in order that the traveler's Naval Record may be kept complete and current.
